

College Coaches Hold Camp Here Sunday, Oct. 16

The College Coaches Baseball Skills Camp will be held at Asheboro's McCrary Park from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 16.

The camp is open to all high school players ages 14-19 and will be instructed by coaches from at least six colleges and universities. Coaches from in-state schools Campbell, Davidson, UNC Greensboro and North Carolina Central are scheduled to take part, along with those from both Ohio University and North Florida.

The pitching-catching segment will run from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m., followed by a one hour recruiting session. The infield-outfield session will begin at noon. Followed by the hitting session from 2-5 p.m. Campers can attend by session, or for the entire day. Single sessions are $175, double sessions $275 and all three sessions $325. All campers will receive a Division I quality camp shirt to wear during the camp and to take home with them afterwards.

Each session will consist of instruction in the following areas; skill work, strength work, mental training, and education about the recruitment process. All skill work is in small groups and one-on-one and will be age specific..

Prospective participants must register online at www.southeastbaseballcamps.com. All registration must be done in advance. Please do not call the Copperheads office to register.
